

INSPIRING PASSION FOR THE MOUNTAIN EXPERIENCE

Spring Uniform Reminder

There's no denying it, Spring is here, and with it the extreme temperature swings that we experience every year!

Check out this post on VailSnowPros.com with some tips on uniform requirements, warm weather alternatives for jackets and gloves, and what to do with a dirty uniform.

Training During the March Busy Season

There are still plenty of training opportunities, despite the March blackout. Offerings this week included 8AM Cert clinics, afternoon Movement Analysis, and the new "Tactics for Rolling Privates" afternoon indoor.

This time of year the clinic schedule changes daily due to fluctuating business needs, instructor availability, and your sign-ups. Check the calendars and sign up in advance, they won't run if you don't sign up!

"Safety on Snow" Reminder - Help Yourself First

With just over a month remaining and conditions changing daily, it's a good time to think back to the beginning of the season and revisit your safety norms.

Did you know our entire "Safety on Snow" video series is available to watch any time? Here's the Help Yourself First video from that series. It's a good reminder to protect ourselves first before helping others!

Chair Chat: What's Your Favorite Blue Groomer?

Chair Chat is a new feature for the 8150 where we ask you one question about teaching at Vail, compile the results, and share the answers back to you in the next newsletter.

Answer this week's question: "What's your favorite blue groomer for teaching and why?"

National Academy Logan Scholarship

With another successful Vail & BC Logan Academy wrapped up, we're looking forward to PSIA-AASI National Academy in Snowbird, Utah, and already planning for next season's Logan Academy.

In case you missed the original announcement here are the 2017 Recipients of the Logan Scholarship!
